

Taste Of Lee

Sponsored by

UF/IFAS Lee County Extension & Caloosa Rare Fruit Exchange

Saturday, July 18, 2009, 9:00am-2:00pm

Location: First Baptist Church of Fort Myers
1735 Jackson St, Downtown Fort Myers

- Free parking
- Admission: 1 (one) can of food or $ 1.00 (donation for CCMI Soup Kitchen)
- Lots of unusual tropical and exotic fruits grown in Southwest Florida
- Free tasting table of fresh tropical fruits and vegetables grown in Lee County
- Local farmers will bring their edibles including locally made cheese, honey, edible flowers, herbs, citrus, fruits and vegetables
- Local chefs will prepare tasty delectables made from local produce
- Free Hourly Raffles
- Farmers will be selling plants this year

Come taste and buy what local farmers and your neighbors are growing

- For more information: 533-7514 (Claudia)
- Directions: Corner of 2nd St and Jackson St, downtown Ft Myers, next to Gywnne Institute, across from the parking garage. From I-75 take Palm Beach Blvd (exit 141). Go west on Palm Beach Blvd., Palm Beach Blvd turns into First Street. Take a left on Jackson Street. From Hwy 41 at Caloosahatchee Bridge Overpass take Martin Luther King Blvd to Jackson Street, turn left. The Taste of Lee is in the Community Auditorium behind the church.